BRANDING THAT FEELS SO GOOD, YOU'LL WANNA DATE YOURSELF.

DIGITAL MEDIA AND BRAND DESIGN COMPANY

FETCHINGFINN.COM

NIKKI TAKAHASHI

---

OWNER, BRAND DESIGNER + STYLIST

I launched Fetching Finn in 2009 with guts, a curious business name, and a couple of pom-poms just to cheer myself on. Today, it's a thriving design company built with high standards and a thirst for non-conformity. "Average" is our only real swear word.

Business should feel like a choose-your-own-adventure; NOT a recipe for granny's dry buns. Our strength is pulling out the visual sizzle that makes you captivating and unique, regardless of industry. We package it in a way that you're proud and excited to promote!

SERVICES

Digital Media Design includes branding, graphic design, website design, and video. We're not marketers or copywriters, but we work alongside them. We visually translate the strategy and messaging they provide for a consistent impression across all platforms.

Some designers accept piecemeal work. We don't. We believe in the value of a complete, consistent brand story - in print and online - done well and done properly. And when your visual brand package is ready to launch, you won't be alone. Our team will stand by to support your branding with ongoing services...just like the Robin to your Batman.

WE COULD BE A FIT IF...

- you feel reluctant to promote yourself or embarrassed to give out your business card and website address
- you're over the allure of DIY solutions and tired of hiring random help for print or web projects
- you know exactly what you do, who you serve, and how you do it differently
- "Oh, my gawd - I love it!" moments are kind of your thing
- having a sort-of-in-house Digital Media Department that doesn't take up an inch of office space sounds pretty perfect
